They make up 99.6% of all firms and provide 44.4% of all jobs in North Carolina. In addition, they circulate 3x more money back into local communities than absentee-owned businesses and corporate chains.

Baby boomers own half of all privately held firms in North Carolina

Retiring business owners own roughly 82,470 firms which represent half of all job-creating businesses in the state. These firms employ 883,000 workers and generate approximately $165 billion in revenue. As most of these owners retire, our local business landscape is going through a dramatic shift.

6 out of 10 business owners plan to sell in the next decade.

By selling to their employees, owners can secure their legacy and keep these businesses and jobs in the community.
